THE COMMENCEMENT

NATIONAL AIR

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous flight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does the Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home and wild war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just.
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

INVOCATION.....Rev. J. Hastie Odgers, A. B.
(Class of 1890, C.L.A.)

CHERUBIM SONG.....Tschaikowsky

Like a choir of mighty angels solemn bending low the knee, to the life-bestowing Trinity do we raise our thrice holy song. Now do we drive far from our thoughts today every earthly care. Like a King of All shall we raise the, Hallowed Host from angels veiled, we hail Thy consecration. Hallelujah!

The A Cappella Choir

ADDRESS.....Edward Price Bell, M.A., Litt.D.

The tassels on the caps of the Seniors indicate by this table the nature of their degrees. In the hoods of the faculty and guests the color of the velvet border indicates the type of degree, while lining of the hood shows the colors of the university which bestowed the degree.

HONORARY DEGREES

Doctor of Laws—Edward Price Bell

For nearly twenty-five years London correspondent of the Chicago Daily News; an able, clear-visioned interpreter of the significant events, viewpoints and personalities of the Great War; a staunch believer in the power of the printed word to build international good will and a permanent world peace; an ardent spokesman for Anglo-American unity and the preservation of free institutions; a well informed student of human affairs; an advocate of thoroughgoing university training as preliminary to the practice of journalism.

Presented by Director Harry Franklin Harrington

Doctor of Science—Fay-Cooper Cole

Professor of Anthropology University of Chicago; an alumnus and former member of the faculty of Northwestern; who has brought honor to the University through his investigations as an ethnologist for the Field Museum of Natural History and through his contributions on the life and institutions of the primitive tribes of the Philippines, the Malay Peninsula and of the prehistoric peoples of our own Southwest.

Presented by Dean James Alton James

Doctor of Science—George Dick

Eminent scientist, teacher, physician, who working with his wife, Gladys Henry Dick, and at the risk of his life, established the etiology of scarlet fever, an epoch making discovery in the history of medicine.

Presented by Dean Irving Samuel Cutter

Doctor of Science—Gladys Dick

Eminent scientist, teacher, physician, who working with her husband, George Frederick Dick, and at the risk of her life, established the etiology of scarlet fever, an epoch making discovery in the history of medicine.

Presented by Professor Arthur Isaac Kendall

Doctor of Science—Joaquin Gallo

Professor of Mathematics and Astronomy in the University of Mexico and Director of the Observatorio Astronomico Nacional de Tacubaya. An eminent investigator, an able administrator, an example of steadfastness to his Country through turbulent times. Even as science knows no nationality and his science no boundaries, the mutual esteem of our peoples ignores the Rio Grande.

Presented by Professor Phillip Fox

Doctor of Laws—Henry Hoyt Hilton

A generous contributor to the advancement of learning through the publication of scientific books of merit, who has rendered service to our government in various capacities, especially in the adjustment of accounts at the close of the World War; a graduate and one-time trustee of Dartmouth College, a member of the governing board of Chicago Theological Seminary and of Constantinople Woman's College, a citizen who is held in the highest honor wherever business or social relations have called him.

Presented by Dean Thomas Franklin Holgate

Master of Arts—Carl Bismarck Roden

Librarian of the Chicago Public Library, recent president of the American Library Association, a leader in adult education, more interested in the quality than in the quantity of reading done; a master of both written and spoken English, distinguished not only for the lucidity of his style but also for the clarity of his thought. Entering the service of the Chicago Public Library over forty years ago he has served it faithfully in various capacities. Under his wise administration the Library has maintained a high place as a factor in the educational life of the community, enabling many to share intellectual opportunities which would otherwise have been denied them.

Presented by Professor Theodore Wesley Koch

Doctor of Laws—Matthew Lyle Spencer

President of the University of Washington; formerly Director of the School of Journalism in that institution; Master of Arts Northwestern University 1905. A student and effective teacher of literature, who in the field of journalism maintained his allegiance to letters; an administrator of proved tact, strength, discretion and vision.

Presented by Professor William Frank Bryan
